

A Special Evening to Support a Commitment to Service

University of Detroit Mercy School of Law

Friday, April 3, 2009

What: The University of Detroit Mercy School of Law hosts the annual Voice for Justice Auction, a charity auction which funds the Sr. Emily George R.S.M. Public Interest Fellowship Program. This program was established in 2003 to provide summer stipends to students that work for organizations that support the poor and marginalized.

When: To raise the funds for these programs, the Student Bar Association in conjunction with the Voice for Justice Committee, will host the seventh annual Public Interest Fellowship Auction on Friday, April 3, 2009 beginning at 6:30 p.m.

Where: In the Atrium of the University of Detroit Mercy School of Law at 651 E. Jefferson Avenue, Detroit, Michigan.

Auction Items Needed:

The Student Bar Association is currently soliciting contributions of items to be sold at the auction. Please consider making a donation to this event. Your contribution will enable us to fund these valuable programs, allowing our students to fulfill their call to serve and work for the public good of our community. Suggested items include gift certificates, gift baskets, personal or business services, event tickets, sports memorabilia or accommodations at a vacation retreat.

Please contact the following persons with any questions you may have:

- Ms. Susan Fronrath, Chair SBA Voice For Justice Auction Committee at fronrasj@students.udmercy.edu
- Prof. Pam Wilkins, 313-596-0270, wilkinpa@udmercy.edu
- Prof. David Koelsch, 313-596-9805, koelschdc@udmercy.edu

We thank you in advance for your generous donation and look forward to meeting you on the evening of April 3, 2009. A separate receipt (for tax purposes) will be sent to you acknowledging your contribution.
